1 Introduction

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Frays Academy Trust uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing ‘privacy notices’ (sometimes called ‘fair processing notices’) to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about your child where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's)
- There is a legitimate interest to share the information.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

For 'special category' and criminal offence data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one or more of the conditions for processing as set out in UK data protection law.

5 Collecting this data

While the majority of information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer need it.

7 Who we share data with
